ART AND CULTURE

Cadaqués has a rich history and a vibrant arts and culture scene. Here are some highlights of the art and culture of Cadaqués:

Salvador Dalí House-Museum

Portlligat, Cadaqués, Girona (6 min walking from wecamp Cadaqués/3 min by car)

In the spring of 1949, the house was ready to be lived in, and Gala was busy decorating it. This unique setting, which became the epicentre of the Dalí family's social life, reached its peak of splendour between 1972 and 1974. It was Salvador Dalí's only stable residence, the place where he lived and worked on a regular basis until 1982, with Gala's death, when he decided to move to Castell de Púbol.

FESTIVITIES

Sol ixent (January):

People from all over the world gather at the Cap de Creus lighthouse on 1 January at 7 a.m. to be the first to see the sun rise, as it is located in the easternmost part of the peninsula, where the sun rises first. Afterwards, the festivities are rounded off with a sardana dance while the villagers serve hot chocolate free of charge to all those who attend.

Feast of Saint Sebastian (January)

All the people of the village get together and walk from the village to the hermitage of San Sebastián, which is located on the mountain, on the slope of Pení. The ascent takes about 2 hours. Once there, a mass is held in honour of the saint.

Carnaval of Cadaqués (February)

Celebration of Carnival in Cadaqués, with a programme of festive activities for young and old, including a fancy-dress ball, musical activities and a popular meal.

Cultural Week (April)

It offers a wide range of cultural activities aimed at all ages. Among them are the literary prizes that take place during this week. All the events take place during the week of 23 April, which coincides with the festival of Sant Jordi.

Indian Fair (June)

Cadaqués dresses up to revive and reclaim its past in a weekend full of shows, crafts and a Caribbean atmosphere. An exhibition of crafts, workshops for all ages and various musical performances are some of the contents of the programme.

Procession of la Virgen del Carmen in a boat (16th of July)

The Virgen del Carmen, which is normally housed in the local church, is carried through the streets of the town. The fishermen and sailors of Cadaqués, as well as local residents and visitors, take part in the procession wearing traditional costumes and carrying floral offerings.

(August)

The concerts take place in different venues in the town: Santa Maria church, the Sala, L'Art i Joia and Sa Conca.

Cadaqués town festival (11th of September):

This summer festival always coincides with the week of Catalonia's national day, which takes place on the 11th of the month. During the festival, the popular competition of dolls, a type of green pitcher that is placed on the head, is held, as well as the rowing regatta, the Marnatón, a sea crossing between Cap de Creus and the bay of Cadaqués, etc... Abdon and Lúdia, the giants of Cadaqués, also take to the streets for the occasion.

InCadaqués (October)

A photography festival in the choir of Cadaqués. InCadaqués offers a special immersion in the world of images and the artists who create them: for 10 days the village becomes a space of expression for photographers from all over the world. The stone walls frame their works and all the emblematic places of the village become the natural decoration of an in situ scenography, with the complicity of the art galleries, bars, restaurants and cultural spaces of Cadaqués.

ROUTES

Cadaqués to Roses

You will pass through countless beautiful coves and beaches, both uphill and downhill. This route is enchanting for the amount of landscapes that can be appreciated as you go along, but this does not mean that it is not tiring. If the route is done in winter, the services will be minimal as the beach bars are closed. This route is recommended to be done in one day and in good time. In total the route is 20.13 km long and takes approximately 6 hours and 30 minutes.

ROUTE

Trip to Paraje de Tudela:

This protected site is located within the Cap de Creus Natural Park, right next to Cadaqués, where Salvador Dalí established his residence. The artist used to say that this was a place created by gods and that it should remain intact. During the visit we will get to know the nature and geology of the place through an artistic view, and the history and magic of this place relatively unknown to tourists.

(1h 30-2h/5.5km)

ROUTE

Faro de Cala Nans from Cadaqués:

During this route we enter the rocky landscape characteristic of Cap de Creus and discover Sa Sabolla, a beautiful beach. Likewise, the views of the bay of Cadaqués from the point of Cala Nans - which closes the bay to the south - are beautiful. This is an ideal walk to do with the family.

(1h 20 min/5km)

ROUTE

Cadaqués-Port Lligat:

This is a short route that allows us to see part of the coastline of Cadaqués, until we reach Portlligat, where the Dalí House-Museum is located.

(2h 57 min /7.27 km)
